A Message from Vicar Deb

Seek first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Matthew 6:33

God's Kingdom - where do you see God's Kingdom? When I was younger, I thought of God's kingdom as the place I would go to after I died. I look forward to being in Heaven with Jesus and with all the people who went before me. God's kingdom is certainly there.

As I've gotten older I've noticed God's kingdom right here. God's kingdom is wherever God's love and works are being done. God's kingdom is here when we love one another. God's kingdom is here when we help each other out. God's kingdom is here when we uphold justice for God's people.

Where have you experienced God's kingdom? I've experienced God's kingdom in the fellowship here after worship. I've noticed the love of God's kingdom in the meals and fellowship given to and for the families who are grieving their loved one. The weekend backpacks of food that we provide to the school kids each week are also where God's kingdom reigns as they help the needy and hungry in our community.

Where have you noticed God's right-eous-ness? Right-eous-ness abounds when God's love and justice reigns. God leads us and encourages us to create his kingdom right here on earth, right here where we are.

I have noticed God's righteousness when doors are held for others, when people stop and talk with the stranger or visitor, when we stand up for our neighbor near or far.

But sometimes I struggle to be God's witness, especially when I think I need to have something done or if I have to be somewhere. It sometimes shows up when I'm waiting in line at the check out line at the store. I sometimes get frustrated with the whole situation, with the people who are struggling to carry their stuff, or with the cashier who has to call for a price check. I have noticed though, that if I put myself in their shoes, and if I share the love that Christ shares with me, the whole experience improves. I find I'm no longer as frustrated and the whole experience is better for all. I may even meet someone friendly! Do you ever struggle to be God's witness in this world?

Jesus asks us to seek first the kingdom of God – to lift up the sad and lonely, to lift up those who are hurting, to help those who have been downtrodden. When we look into God's kingdom and lift up others in God's name, our worries seem to lessen. Thank you Jesus – thank you for opening our eyes and hearts to your love, to your kingdom, and to your right-eous-ness!

Vicar Deb

First English's Stewardship Corner:

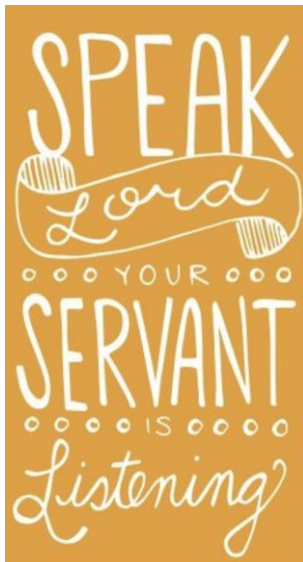

Where is the Holy Spirit working in our Community?

Thank: Thank you to all who helped with Servant's day. Together we helped over 30 households in our community. Thank you also for providing school supplies for the Wapakoneta Middle School Kids.

Ask: How has God provided servants in your life? How might God be calling you to be a servant to others?

Support: Pray for the young people who began confirmation classes this month. First English and Trinity youth are learning together and are studying the Old Testament this year. Consider supporting Operation Shoebox in honor of our youth.

Service: How might you reach out to those in the community who may need to hear a friendly voice, to receive a nice card, or who may need a helping hand? Who is God putting in front of you today?

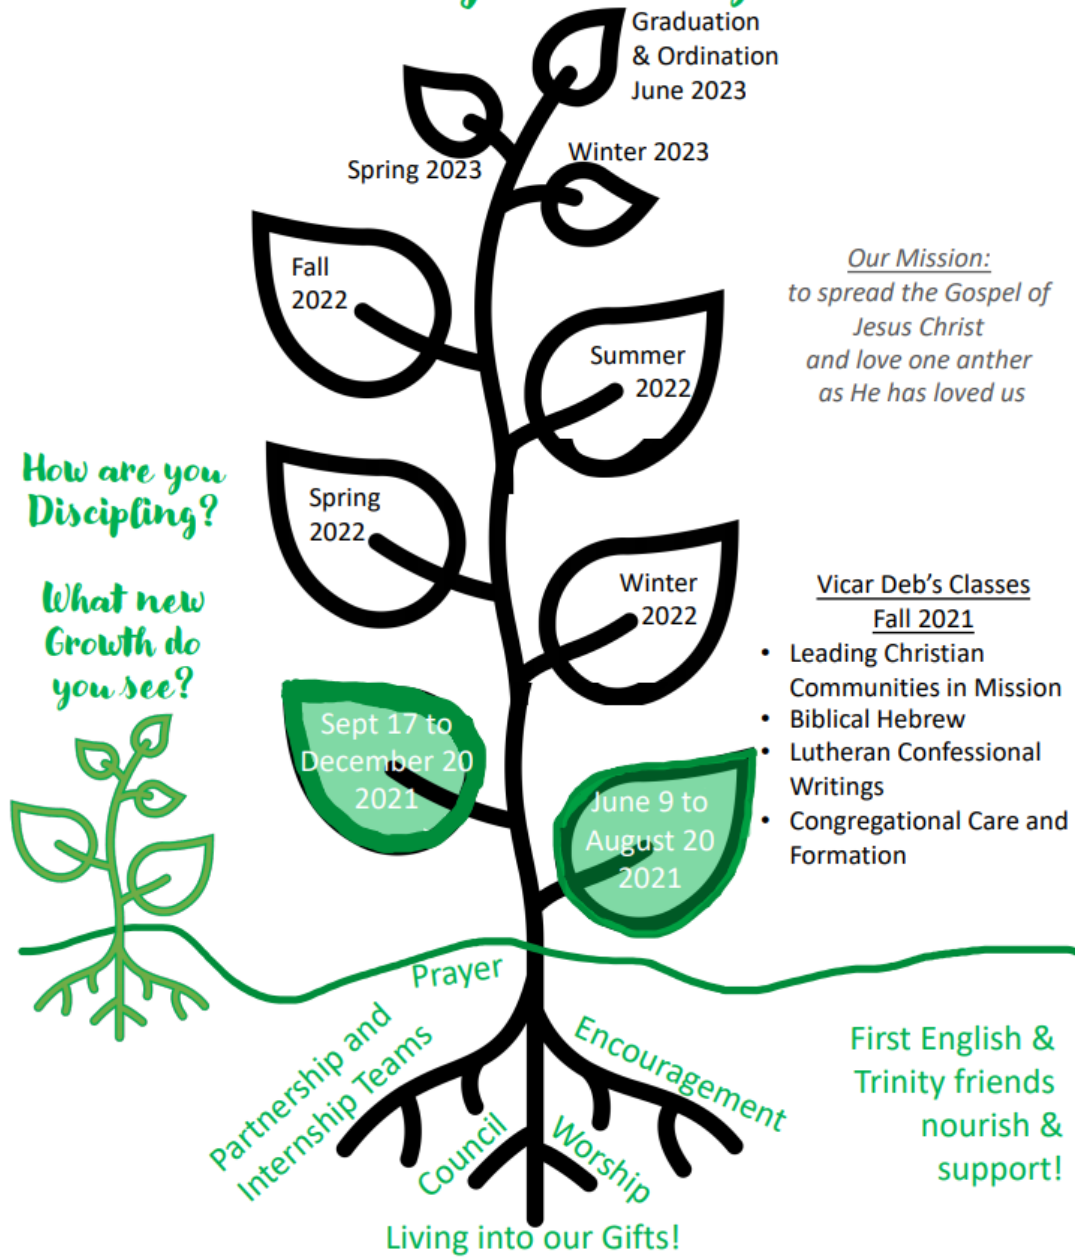

Prayer Practice: This month, as you go about your day, maybe while you are driving, maybe while you are out in nature, or maybe while you are shopping, look around and notice God's Kingdom. Where are you seeing God's kingdom in action? How is God calling you to be as you are out and about in the world?

Vicar Deb's Seminary Experience:

Thank you all for supporting me and praying for me as I attend Seminary.

I spent a week in September at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota. My cohort (the group of us who are going through this MDivX program together) attended 8 hours of class each day, AND were able to spend time outside of class learning more about each other. One of our classes is helping us to understand how we can help create caring spaces for others - how we can be Jesus' hands and feet for the other. The other class is leading us to learn more about our community and how to help our community of faith listen for God and one another - so that we can serve God and one another in this world. I will be doing projects to explore these things for both classes and will share the questions and learnings with you. Thank you for supporting me and praying with me as I learn and grow.
